THE MONSTER

Slowly the monster wakes
    blinking its glass eyes.
It writhes with joy
    at the feeling of movement
    within.
Happily it thumps its concrete trail.
    Cells,
pushing,
    shoving
Through plaster veins
    Each alone
    different,
Join to make a whole.
    Then — 2:10 —
Out of many gashes
    life spills out
the cells are gone.
    The monster dies, leaving only an empty shell
    of concrete and glass

Rosemary Maciel

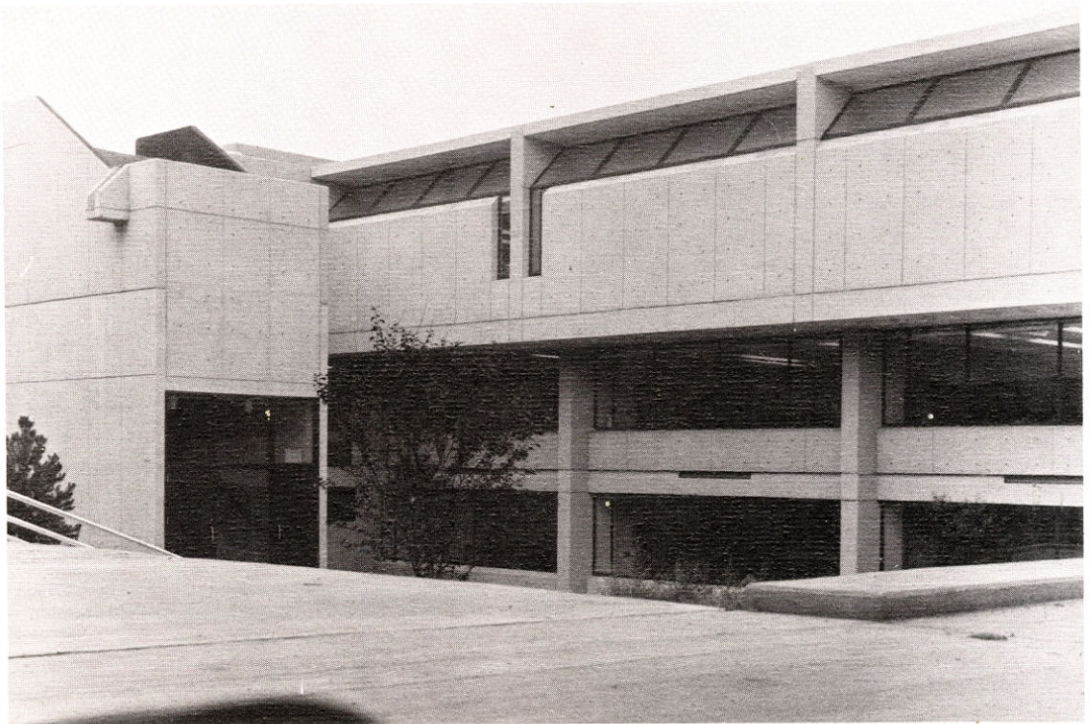

It's just that, sometimes I feel so alone,
feel that if I dared to trust
my soul would be torn apart.

It's just that sometimes people overlook that
Other people are human too with emotions, fears and insecurities
like everyone else.

It's just that sometimes
I can't cope with my feelings
As I usually can.
I need to be alone then
to rearrange my head
but I also need someone to listen
just as I have listened
so many times before.

It's just that sometimes life is a drag.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The Bears had a tough season closing with a no win record, but pride and devotion kept the game exciting throughout the fall. Co-captains Mike Grayson, Kevin Monroe, and Rich Sculley lead the mighty Bears to close victories in many games but couldn't quite make it. We will miss the graduating seniors and should give them great credit for the unending spirit during the freezing rain and miserable weather that seemed to be present for many of the games. A special good-by to Coach Pate who will be leaving his football career behind for bigger and better things. He has an optimistic view of this past season and future teams, and is quoted: "There's no place to go but up!"

SWIMMING

Norwalk's Swimming Bears escaped with a 4-5 record and took the Bronze Laurels in the East Division of the F.C.I.A.C. One highlight of the season was a stunning victory over Stanford which had the top Medley Relay in the County and the record holding Freestyle in the State. Norwalk also took top honors against cross-town rival Brian McMahon where Vance Willis and Tri-Captains Jim Henika, Dave Rodin and John Scott combined for a victory in the final relay to clinch the meet. Norwalk's team should improve with age next year with many starters returning including the 3rd place Butterflyer in the County Meet Dave Rodin. The team expresses its thanks to Coach Pat Silverstein for his work with the team.

BASKETBALL

Under the watchful eye of Coach Don Quinn, the Mighty Bears did it again. Although the season had a slow start with many postponements due to inclement weather, this year our Fantastic Five played victory over victory ending with a year to be proud of, 16 wins and 9 losses. This qualified us for the quarter-finals of the State Championships, beating Weathersfield and Bridgeport Central. This brought us face to face with the brutal Wilbur Cross Team. That game is one nobody will forget. On Saturday, March 3, 1973, Anthony Trimboli scored his 1000th point. The crowd stopped the game with a thundering ovation for five minutes. Both Coaches and referees congratulated the now 4th highest scorer in New England, with our own last year's Sam Miller being second. We also easily qualified to play in the F.C.I.A.C. Championships beating Andrew Warde and, sorry to say, lost to McMahon. Tony Trimboli won honors as being in the All F.C.I.A.C. First Team and his team mate, Joel Walker joined him in the All City First Team. Next year's team will be as great as this year's, leaving such great players as Larry Miller, Harry Bridgeforth, Dave Bentley and Ellis Spaulding to lead the Bears to another successful season.

Nevertheless, they're sure to miss the graduates including Co-Captain Joel Walker, Co-Captain Anthony Trimboli, Rick Scully and Paul Gosselin. Thanks to our Coach, our Team, and our Cheerleaders and Crowds, this year for an unforgettable year.

ACTIVITIES

SENIOR EXECUTIVE

The Senior Executive contributed a great deal to make the class of '73 a success. There were many activities sponsored by the Senior Exec; car wash, spaghetti dinner, bake sales, and a very successful coffee shop.

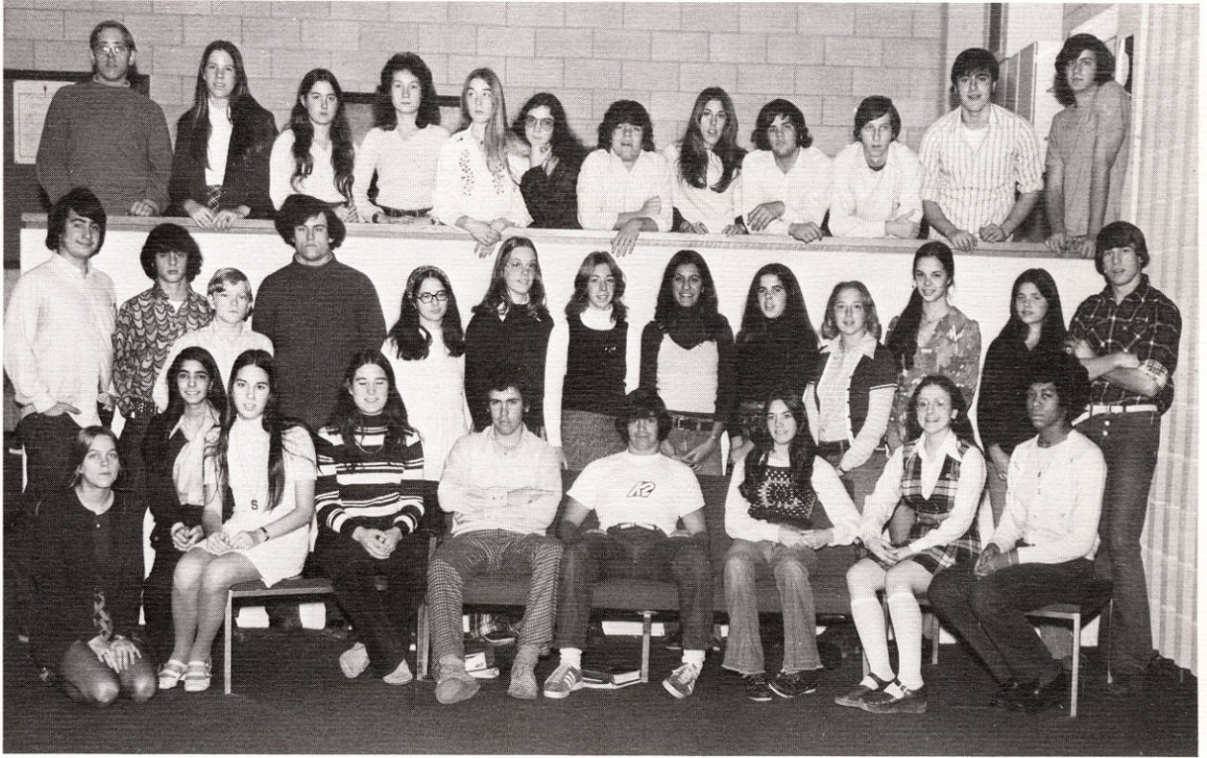

The class of 1973 would thank their advisor Mr. Howell and President Bob Buonocore, Vice President Mark Lucus, Secretary Linda Secchi, and Treasurer Doug Tanger for their support and leadership.

THE JUNIOR EXEC.

Under the leadership of President Steve Annunziato, the Junior Exec. with the help of the junior class, sold lollipops, had car washes and tried to prepare for their junior and senior prom.

THE SOPHOMORE EXEC.

The Sophomore Exec. got off to a good start this year. Besides sponsoring supernatural shows presented by the Warrens and selling candles, they provided those warm, delicious pretzels everyday after school. Officers: President: Timmy Frank, Vice-President: Mark Sanford, Secretary: Karen Snow, Treasurer: Heidi Sutton.

THE FRESHMAN EXEC.

The Freshmen have had a very successful year. They sold posters and have made a great deal of money in their bake sales. With such a good start, we wish them best of luck in the future. Officers: President: Joe Maddaferi, Vice-President: Scott Barton, Secretary: Kathy Hennessey, Gary Westenhieser: Treasurer.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

In December, a student government was formed for the benefit of the school. It consisted of 5 executive officers and 40 students representing their specific districts. Representation was by zip code so that all of the Norwalk High family would have a say in school affairs. The officers for this year are: President — Yolando Willis, Vice-President — David Rodin, Recording Secretary — Kallie Bufithis, Corresponding Secretary — Melanie Deorie, Treasurer — Howard Schloss.

HIGH TIMES

Under the direction of Kallie Bufithis as editor, High Times has risen to become an integral part of Norwalk High's daily progress. The staff, consisting of co-editors Sue Roberto and Sheila Knaver, Feature Editor Ellen Azoff, Layout Editors Shirley Liu and Allen Bickel, Sports Editor George Scombul, Advertising Editor Ed Bowers, and Typing Editor Sue Cockington shows that Norwalk High's High Times will not only be relevant today but relevant for next year.

USHERS CLUB

CHESS CLUB

This year a rejuvenated Chess Club held a chess tournament. We also discussed relevant social issues such as the relative virtues of the Sicilian Defence compared with the Fried Liver Gambit. Better luck next year! President: Wayne Landsman, Vice-President: Bill Kuhn.

THE LIBRARY CLUB

As in the past years, the Library Club has no officers and no regular meetings but that has not hindered the Club. This year the size of the club has doubled, many being Freshmen, who will continue serving the library through their high school years.

The members give up their study halls to check books in and out, to keep the shelves in order and help the students with the A.V. equipment. As the members become more experienced, their duties change to stamping in new magazines, getting back issues for the students and preparing new books to be put out on the shelves.

Without this club, the library wouldn't be able to function and the students would be deprived of an important part of their education. Thanks to the library personnel and the Library Club members, Norwalk High School has an excellent library to use.

FINE ARTS PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

Finding the need for a photography club aimed at truly professional pictures, Mr. Borowicz and Mr. Parry formed a fine arts photography club. ## THE ADVANCED CHOIR

The choir lived up to its great reputation again this year, performing under the competent direction of Mr. Matz. The concerts this year were many, but all kept up with the high standards we are used to at NHS choir concerts. Music ranged from Bach to Peterson, beginning with the Candlelight Service, and going to a combined choir concert with the Duke Choral and then on to the Spring Concert. Music continued through the year with performances for the Rotary club, the Jewish Center and for the Bradley Duffey Memorial. Performing continued for our active choir in singing for the Retired Personal of Fairfield County, the New Rochelle Alumnae and the Arts Festival of the city of Stamford. Selected members of the Choir also participated in the All-State Choir and the Southwestern Choir concerts. All in all it was another successful year of choral work.

GIRL'S TRACK

Girl's Track, coached by Pat Dayton, went into its second season of organization with an all underclassmen unit. There were five returnees, including State Javelin champion, sophomore Dolly Gardella. Also, Jeanella Brown, a hurdler and high jumper; Patty Regan, sprinter; Linda Scott, high jump, long jump, and 800, and Karen Mola. Sophomore Sue Gordon ran sprints and middle distances. There were five outstanding freshmen: Karen Cassuto, doing everything; Laura Manby, distance runner; Patty Richman, long jump; Carmela Taraglia, long jump; and Debbi Siladi. The only senior, Joann Fink, was the student assistant coach for the second year. Good Luck to next year's team.

TENNIS

This year's tennis season was highlighted by the addition of girl's competing with boys. The No. 1 player on the team was senior Linda Wolf, one of the top girl net stars in the state. She has the distinction of being the first girl in Connecticut seeded No. 1 on a High School varsity team comprised of boys and girls. She also ranked one of the top ten female net stars in New England. Congratulations, Linda! There were also two other females, sophomores Nancy Cusick and Donna Prescott, who invaded the once all male domain. Good Luck to them in future years.

A sincere thanks to Coach Ed Pagano for his patience through the years of coaching, good-by to seniors Linda Wolf and Dana Harris, and good luck to all returning players, and next year's team.

GOLF

The Golf Team, Coached by John "Champ" Howell couldn't quite get the swing of things this season. Although their record doesn't show it, 4-11, their hard efforts kept them in contention through every match. Leading the team were three seniors, Co-Captains Alan Mosher, Larry Marrone, and Mike Fratino. Best of luck to all future prospects.
